PLAINTIFF'S OFFER OF JUDGMENT
TO BUCK

NOW COMES, through undersigned counsel, Plaintiff, James J. Donelon, Commissioner of Insurance for the State of Louisiana ("Commissioner"), in his capacity as Court Appointed Rehabilitator of Louisiana Health Cooperative, Inc. ("LAHC"), through his duly Court appointed Receiver, Billy Bostick ("Plaintiff" or the "Receiver"), who, pursuant to Louisiana Code of Civil Procedure article 970, hereby offers to allow judgment to be taken against Plaintiff, if and when defendant, Buck Global, LLC f/k/a Buck Consultants, LLC ("Buck"), pays the full and final sum of FIVE MILLION DOLLARS AND NO CENTS ($5,000,000.00), inclusive of interest, penalties, and costs, including attorneys' fees, in full resolution of any and all claims that Plaintiff may have against Buck regarding LAHC in this proceeding. This offer of judgment does not relate to, impact, or resolve any of Plaintiff's claims against other entities, including those against defendants Milliman, Inc. and Group Resources Incorporated. This offer will remain in effect for ten (10) days after service, at which time, if not accepted, it shall be deemed withdrawn. Evidence of this offer is not admissible except in accordance with the provisions of La. C.C.P. art. 970. This offer is made for the purposes specified in La. C.C.P. art. 970 and may not be construed either as an admission of liability or damages.

Offer of Judgment made this 9th day of April, 2021.

Undersigned counsel hereby CERTIFIES that this offer of judgment was emailed to the following counsel of record for Buck via .pdf attachment: James Brown (jabrown@liskow.com) and David Godofsky (david.godofsky@alston.com) on this 9th day of April, 2021.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ J.E. Cullens, Jr.
