Payment of Claims

Depending on the terms of the insurance policy, some losses may be based on actual cash value (ACV) and other losses based on replacement cost (RC).

- ACV is the amount needed to repair or replace the damaged or destroyed property, minus the depreciation.
- RC involves the initial payment of actual cash value (ACV) of a loss, and the subsequent payment of the additional amount that is actually and necessarily expended to repair or replace the damaged or destroyed property.

*Refer to your policy for the terms and conditions describing how a particular loss is to be paid.

Payment and Adjustment of Claims

Pursuant to LSA-R.S. 22:1892 and 22:1973, except in the case of catastrophic loss, the insurer shall initiate loss adjustment of a property damage claim and/or a claim for reasonable medical expenses within fourteen (14) days after notification of loss by the claimant.

In the case of catastrophic loss, the insurer shall initiate loss adjustment of a property damage claim within thirty (30) days after notification of loss by the claimant unless the Commissioner of Insurance promulgates a rule to extend the time period for initiating a loss adjustment for damages arising from a presidentially declared emergency or disaster or a gubernatorially declared emergency or disaster for up to an additional thirty (30) days. Thereafter, one additional extension of the period of time for initiating a loss adjustment may be allowed by the Commissioner of Insurance if approved by the Senate Committee on Insurance and the House Committee on Insurance.

All insurers shall make a written offer to settle any property damage claim, including a third-party claim, within thirty (30) days after the receipt of satisfactory proof of loss of that claim.

Failure to make such payment within thirty (30) days after receipt of such satisfactory written proofs and demand thereof or failure to make a written offer to settle any property damage claim, including a third-party claim, within thirty (30) days after receipt of a satisfactory proof of loss of that claim may result in a late penalty against the insurer in addition to the payment of the claim.

If the insurer is found to be arbitrary, capricious, or without probable cause in settling any property damage claim, the insurer must pay the insured, in addition to the amount of the loss, fifty percent (50%) damages on the amount found to be due from the insurer to the insured, or one thousand dollars ($1,000.00), whichever is greater, as well as attorney fees and costs, if applicable.

Regulation 76—Privacy of Consumer (LAC 37:XIII.Chapter 99)

The Department of Insurance, pursuant to the authority of the Louisiana Insurance Code, R.S. 22:1 et seq., and in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act, R.S. 49:950 et seq., hereby has amended Regulation 76—Privacy of Consumer.

The purpose of amending Regulation 76 is to comply with the passage of the Fixing America's Surface Transportation ("FAST") Act, which was passed by the United States Congress and signed into law (Public Law 114-94; December 4, 2015). The FAST Act amended the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act to provide an exemption from the annual privacy notice requirements required under Gramm-Leach-Bliley. As Regulation 76 mirrors the duties and responsibilities of those in the business of insurance with regards to the privacy of insurance consumer's information, any amendments to Gramm-Leach-Bliley that were passed into law should likewise be incorporated as an amendment to Regulation 76. The FAST Act amendment serves the purpose, in both federal law and the Regulation 76 amendment here, to relieve those in the business of insurance to whom it applies from duplicative privacy notice requirements, while at the same time continuing to preserve the privacy rights of insurance consumers.

(c). the fact that an individual is or has been one of the licensee's customers or has obtained an insurance product or service from the licensee;

(d). any information about the licensee's consumer if it is disclosed in a manner that indicates that the individual is or has been the licensee's consumer;

(e). any information that a consumer provides to a licensee or that the licensee or its agent otherwise obtains in connection with collecting on a loan or servicing a loan;

(f). any information the licensee collects through an Internet cookie (an information-collecting device from a web server); and

(g) information from a consumer report;

ii. information not included. Personally identifiable financial information does not include:

(a). health information;

(b). a list of names and addresses of customers of an entity that is not a financial institution; and

(c). information that does not identify a consumer, such as aggregate information or blind data that does not contain personal identifiers such as account numbers, names or addresses.

Publicly Available Information—any information that a licensee has a reasonable basis to believe is lawfully made available to the general public from:

a. federal, state or local government records;

b. widely distributed media; or

c. disclosures to the general public that are required to be made by federal, state or local law;

d. reasonable basis. A licensee has a reasonable basis to believe that information is lawfully made available to the general public if the licensee has taken steps to determine:

i. that the information is of the type that is available to the general public; and

ii. whether an individual can direct that the information not be made available to the general public and, if so, that the licensee's consumer has not done so;

e. examples:

i. government records. Publicly available information in government records includes information in government real estate records and security interest filings;

ii. widely distributed media. Publicly available information from widely distributed media includes information from a telephone book, a television or radio program, a newspaper or a web site that is available to the general public on an unrestricted basis. A web site is not restricted merely because an Internet service provider or a site operator requires a fee or a password, so long as access is available to the general public;

f. reasonable basis:

i. a licensee has a reasonable basis to believe that mortgage information is lawfully made available to the general public if the licensee has determined that the information is of the type included on the public record in the jurisdiction where the mortgage would be recorded;

ii. a licensee has a reasonable basis to believe that an individual's telephone number is lawfully made available to the general public if the licensee has located the telephone number in the telephone book or the consumer has informed you that the telephone number is not unlisted.

Subchapter B. Privacy and Opt Out Notices for Financial Information

§9911. Initial Privacy Notice to Consumers Required

A. Initial Notice Requirement. A licensee shall provide a clear and conspicuous notice that accurately reflects its privacy policies and practices to:

1. Customer. An individual who becomes the licensee's customer, not later than when the licensee establishes a customer relationship, except as provided in Subsection E of this Section; and

2. Consumer. A consumer, before the licensee discloses any nonpublic personal financial information about the consumer to any nonaffiliated third party, if the licensee makes a disclosure other than as authorized by §§9931 and 9933.

B. When initial notice to a consumer is not required. A licensee is not required to provide an initial notice to a consumer under Paragraph A.2 of this Section if:

1. the licensee does not disclose any nonpublic personal financial information about the consumer to any nonaffiliated third party, other than as authorized by §§9931 and 9933, and the licensee does not have a customer relationship with the consumer; or

2. a notice has been provided by an affiliated licensee, as long as the notice clearly identifies all licensees to whom the notice applies and is accurate with respect to the licensee and the other institutions.

C. When the Licensee Establishes a Customer Relationship

1. General Rule. A licensee establishes a customer relationship at the time the licensee and the consumer enter into a continuing relationship.

2. Examples of Establishing Customer Relationship. A licensee establishes a customer relationship when the consumer:

a. becomes a policyholder of a licensee that is an insurer when the insurer delivers an insurance policy or contract to the consumer, or in the case of a licensee that is an insurance producer or insurance broker, obtains insurance through that licensee; or

b. agrees to obtain financial, economic or investment advisory services relating to insurance products or services for a fee from the licensee.

D. Existing Customers. When an existing customer obtains a new insurance product or service from a licensee that is to be used primarily for personal, family or household purposes, the licensee satisfies the initial notice requirements of Subsection A of this Section as follows:

1. the licensee may provide a revised policy notice, under §9919, that covers the customer's new insurance product or service; or

2. if the initial, revised or annual notice that the licensee most recently provided to that customer was accurate with respect to the new insurance product or service, the licensee does not need to provide a new privacy notice under Subsection A of this Section.

E. Exceptions to Allow Subsequent Delivery of Notice

1. A licensee may provide the initial notice required by Paragraph A.1 of this Section within a reasonable time after the licensee establishes a customer relationship if:

a. establishing the customer relationship is not at the customer's election; or

b. providing notice not later than when the licensee establishes a customer relationship would substantially delay the customer's transaction and the customer agrees to receive the notice at a later time.

2. Examples of Exceptions

a. Not at Customer's Election. Establishing a customer relationship is not at the customer's election if a licensee acquires or is assigned a customer's policy from another financial institution or residual market mechanism and the customer does not have a choice about the licensee's acquisition or assignment.

b. Substantial Delay of Customer's Transaction. Providing notice not later than when a licensee establishes a customer relationship would substantially delay the customer's transaction when the licensee and the individual agree over the telephone to enter into a customer relationship involving prompt delivery of the insurance product or service.

c. No Substantial Delay of Customer's Transaction. Providing notice not later than when a licensee establishes a customer relationship would not substantially delay the customer's transaction when the relationship is initiated in person at the licensee's office or through other means by which the customer may view the notice, such as on a web site.

F. Delivery. When a licensee is required to deliver an initial privacy notice by this Section, the licensee shall deliver it according to §9921. If the licensee uses a short-form initial notice for non-customers according to §9915.D, the licensee may deliver its privacy notice according to §9915.D.3.

AUTHORITY NOTE: Promulgated in accordance with R.S. 22:2, 22:3, 22:3052, 22:3054 and Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, Public Law 106-102–Nov. 12, 1999.

HISTORICAL NOTE: Promulgated by the Department of Insurance, Office of the Commissioner; LR 27:551 (April 2001).

§9913. Annual Privacy Notice to Customers Required

A.1. General Rule. A licensee shall provide a clear and conspicuous notice to customers that accurately reflects its privacy policies and practices not less than annually during the continuation of the customer relationship. Annually means at least once in any period of 12 consecutive months during which that relationship exists. A licensee may define the 12 consecutive-month period, but the licensee shall apply it to the customer on a consistent basis.

2. Example. A licensee provides a notice annually if it defines the 12 consecutive-month period as a calendar year and provides the annual notice to the customer once in each calendar year following the calendar year in which the licensee provided the initial notice. For example, if a customer opens an account on any day of Year 1, the licensee shall provide an annual notice to that customer by December 31 of Year 2.

B.1. Termination of Customer Relationship. A licensee is not required to provide an annual notice to a former customer. A former customer is an individual with whom a licensee no longer has a continuing relationship.

2. Examples

a. A licensee no longer has a continuing relationship with an individual if the individual no longer is a current policyholder of an insurance product or no longer obtains insurance services with or through the licensee.

b. A licensee no longer has a continuing relationship with an individual if the individual's policy is lapsed, expired or otherwise inactive or dormant under the licensee's business practices, and the licensee has not communicated with the customer about the relationship for a period of 12 consecutive months, other than to provide annual privacy notices, material required by law or regulation, or promotional materials.

c. For the purposes of this regulation, a licensee no longer has a continuing relationship with an individual if the individual's last known address according to the licensee's records is deemed invalid. An address of record is deemed invalid if mail sent to that address by the licensee has been returned by the postal authorities as undeliverable and if subsequent attempts by the licensee to obtain a current valid address for the individual have been unsuccessful.

d. A licensee no longer has a continuing relationship with a customer in the case of providing real estate settlement services, at the time the customer completes execution of all documents related to the real estate closing, payment for those services has been received, or the licensee has completed all of its responsibilities with respect to the settlement, including filing documents on the public record, whichever is later.

C. Delivery. When a licensee is required by this Section to deliver an annual privacy notice, the licensee shall deliver it according to §9921.

AUTHORITY NOTE: Promulgated in accordance with R.S. 22:2, 22:3, 22:3052, 22:3054 and Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, Public Law 106-102–Nov. 12, 1999).

HISTORICAL NOTE: Promulgated by the Department of Insurance, Office of the Commissioner; LR 27:552 (April 2001).

§9915. Information to be Included in Privacy Notices

A. General Rule. The initial, annual and revised privacy notices that a licensee provides under §§9911, 9913 and 9919 shall include each of the following items of information, in addition to any other information the licensee wishes to provide, that applies to the licensee and to the consumers to whom the licensee sends its privacy notice:

1. the categories of nonpublic personal financial information that the licensee collects;
2. the categories of nonpublic personal financial information that the licensee discloses;
3. the categories of affiliates and nonaffiliated third parties to whom the licensee discloses nonpublic personal financial information, other than those parties to whom the licensee discloses information under §§9931 and 9933;
4. the categories of nonpublic personal financial information about the licensee's former customers that the licensee discloses and the categories of affiliates and nonaffiliated third parties to whom the licensee discloses nonpublic personal financial information about the licensee's former customers, other than those parties to whom the licensee discloses information under §§9931 and 9933;

5. if a licensee discloses nonpublic personal financial information to a nonaffiliated third party under §9929 (and no other exception in §§9931 and 9933 applies to that disclosure), a separate description of the categories of information the licensee discloses and the categories of third parties with whom the licensee has contracted;

6. an explanation of the consumer's right under §9923 to opt out of the disclosure of nonpublic personal financial information to nonaffiliated third parties, including the methods by which the consumer may exercise that right at that time;

7. any disclosures that the licensee makes under Section 603(d)(2)(A)(iii) of the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. 1681a(d)(2)(A)(iii)) (that is, notices regarding the ability to opt out of disclosures of information among affiliates);

8. the licensee's policies and practices with respect to protecting the confidentiality and security of nonpublic personal information; and

9. any disclosure that the licensee makes under Subsection B of this Section.

B. Description of Parties Subject to Exceptions. If a licensee discloses nonpublic personal financial information as authorized under §§9931 and 9933, the licensee is not required to list those exceptions in the initial or annual privacy notices required by §§9911 and 9913. When describing the categories of parties to whom disclosure is made, the licensee is required to state only that it makes disclosures to other affiliated or nonaffiliated third parties, as applicable, as permitted by law.

C. Examples

1. Categories of nonpublic personal financial information that the licensee collects. A licensee satisfies the requirement to categorize the nonpublic personal financial information it collects if the licensee categorizes it according to the source of the information, as applicable:

- a. information from the consumer;
- b. information about the consumer's transactions with the licensee or its affiliates;
- c. information about the consumer's transactions with nonaffiliated third parties; and
- d. information from a consumer reporting agency.

2. Categories of Nonpublic Personal Financial Information a Licensee Discloses

a. A licensee satisfies the requirement to categorize nonpublic personal financial information it discloses if the licensee categorizes the information according to source, as described in Subsection C.1 of this Section, as applicable, and provides a few examples to illustrate the types of information in each category. These might include:

i. information from the consumer, including application information, such as assets and income and identifying information, such as name, address and Social Security number;

ii. transaction information, such as information about balances, payment history and parties to the transaction; and

iii. information from consumer reports, such as a consumer's creditworthiness and credit history.

b. A licensee does not adequately categorize the information that it discloses if the licensee uses only general terms, such as transaction information about the consumer.

c. If a licensee reserves the right to disclose all of the nonpublic personal financial information about consumers that it collects, the licensee may simply state that fact without describing the categories or examples of nonpublic personal information that the licensee discloses.

3. Categories of Affiliates and Nonaffiliated Third Parties to whom the Licensee Discloses

a. A licensee satisfies the requirement to categorize the affiliates and nonaffiliated third parties to which the licensee discloses nonpublic personal financial information about consumers if the licensee identifies the types of businesses in which they engage.

b. Types of businesses may be described by general terms only if the licensee uses a few illustrative examples of significant lines of business. For example, a licensee may use the term financial products or services if it includes appropriate examples of significant lines of businesses, such as life insurer, automobile insurer, consumer banking or securities brokerage.

c. A licensee also may categorize the affiliates and nonaffiliated third parties to which it discloses nonpublic personal financial information about consumers using more detailed categories.

4. Disclosures under Exception for Service Providers and Joint Marketers. If a licensee discloses nonpublic personal financial information under the exception in §9929 to a nonaffiliated third party to market products or services that it offers alone or jointly with another financial institution, the licensee satisfies the disclosure requirement of Paragraph A.5 of this Section if it:

a. lists the categories of nonpublic personal financial information it discloses, using the same categories and examples the licensee used to meet the requirements of Paragraph A2. of this Section, as applicable; and

b. states whether the third party is:

i. a service provider that performs marketing services on the licensee's behalf or on behalf of the licensee and another financial institution; or

ii. a financial institution with whom the licensee has a joint marketing agreement.

5. Simplified Notices. If a licensee does not disclose, and does not wish to reserve the right to disclose, nonpublic personal financial information about customers or former customers to affiliates or nonaffiliated third parties except as authorized under §§9931 and 9933, the licensee may simply state that fact, in addition to the information it shall provide under Paragraphs A.1, A.8, A.9, and Subsection B of this Section.

6. Confidentiality and Security. A licensee describes its policies and practices with respect to protecting the confidentiality and security of nonpublic personal financial information if it does both of the following:

a. describes in general terms who is authorized to have access to the information; and

b. states whether the licensee has security practices and procedures in place to ensure the confidentiality of the information in accordance with the licensee's policy. The licensee is not required to describe technical information about the safeguards it uses.

D. Short-Form Initial Notice with Opt Out Notice for Non-Customers

1. A licensee may satisfy the initial notice requirements in §§9911.A.2 and 9917.C for a consumer who is not a customer by providing a short-form initial notice at the same time as the licensee delivers an opt out notice as required in §9917.

2. A short-form initial notice shall:

a. be clear and conspicuous;

b. state that the licensee's privacy notice is available upon request; and

c. explain a reasonable means by which the consumer may obtain that notice.

3. The licensee shall deliver its short-form initial notice according to §9921. The licensee is not required to deliver its privacy notice with its short-form initial notice. The licensee instead may simply provide the consumer a reasonable means to obtain its privacy notice. If a consumer who receives the licensee's short-form notice requests the licensee's privacy notice, the licensee shall deliver its privacy notice according to §9921.

4. Examples of Obtaining Privacy Notice. The licensee provides a reasonable means by which a consumer may obtain a copy of its privacy notice if the licensee:

a. provides a toll-free telephone number that the consumer may call to request the notice; or

b. for a consumer who conducts business in person at the licensee's office, maintains copies of the notice on hand that the licensee provides to the consumer immediately upon request.

E. Future Disclosures. The licensee's notice may include:

1. categories of nonpublic personal financial information that the licensee reserves the right to disclose in the future, but does not currently disclose; and

2. categories of affiliates or nonaffiliated third parties to whom the licensee reserves the right in the future to disclose, but to whom the licensee does not currently disclose, nonpublic personal financial information.

F. Sample Clauses. Sample clauses illustrating some of the notice content required by this Section are included in Appendix A of this regulation.

AUTHORITY NOTE: Promulgated in accordance with R.S. 22:2, 22:3, 22:3052, 22:3054 and Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, Public Law 106-102–Nov. 12, 1999.

HISTORICAL NOTE: Promulgated by the Department of Insurance, Office of the Commissioner; LR 27:553 (April 2001).

§9917. Form of Opt Out Notice to Consumers and Opt Out Methods

A.1. Form of Opt Out Notice. If a licensee is required to provide an opt out notice under §9923, it shall provide a clear and conspicuous notice to each of its consumers that accurately explains the right to opt out under that Section. The notice shall state:

- a. that the licensee discloses or reserves the right to disclose nonpublic personal financial information about its consumer to a nonaffiliated third party;
- b. that the consumer has the right to opt out of that disclosure; and
- c. a reasonable means by which the consumer may exercise the opt out right.

2. Examples

a. Adequate Opt Out Notice. A licensee provides adequate notice that the consumer can opt out of the disclosure of nonpublic personal financial information to a nonaffiliated third party if the licensee:

- i. identifies all of the categories of nonpublic personal financial information that it discloses or reserves the right to disclose, and all of the categories of nonaffiliated third parties to which the licensee discloses the information, as described in §9915.A.2 and 3, and states that the consumer can opt out of the disclosure of that information; and

- ii. identifies the insurance products or services that the consumer obtains from the licensee, either singly or jointly, to which the opt out direction would apply.

b. Reasonable Opt Out Means. A licensee provides a reasonable means to exercise an opt out right if it:

- i. designates check-off boxes in a prominent position on the relevant forms with the opt out notice;

- ii. includes a reply form together with the opt out notice;

- iii. provides an electronic means to opt out, such as a form that can be sent via electronic mail or a process at the licensee's web site, if the consumer agrees to the electronic delivery of information; or

- iv. provides a toll-free telephone number that consumers may call to opt out.

c. Unreasonable Opt Out Means. A licensee does not provide a reasonable means of opting out if:

- i. the only means of opting out is for the consumer to write his or her own letter to exercise that opt out right; or

- ii. the only means of opting out as described in any notice subsequent to the initial notice is to use a check-off box that the licensee provided with the initial notice but did not include with the subsequent notice.

d. Specific Opt Out Means. A licensee may require each consumer to opt out through a specific means, as long as that means is reasonable for that consumer.

B. Same Form as Initial Notice Permitted. A licensee may provide the opt out notice together with or on the same written or electronic form as the initial notice the licensee provides in accordance with §9911.

C. Initial Notice Required When Opt Out Notice Delivered Subsequent to Initial Notice. If a licensee provides the opt out notice later than required for the initial notice in accordance with §9911, the licensee shall also include a copy of the initial notice with the opt out notice in writing or, if the consumer agrees, electronically.

D. Joint Relationships

1. If two or more consumers jointly obtain an insurance product or service from a licensee, the licensee may provide a single opt out notice. The licensee's opt out notice shall explain how the licensee will treat an opt out direction by a joint consumer (as explained in Paragraph 5 of this Subsection).

2. Any of the joint consumers may exercise the right to opt out. The licensee may either:

- a. treat an opt out direction by a joint consumer as applying to all of the associated joint consumers; or

- b. permit each joint consumer to opt out separately.

3. If a licensee permits each joint consumer to opt out separately, the licensee shall permit one of the joint consumers to opt out on behalf of all of the joint consumers.

4. A licensee may not require all joint consumers to opt out before it implements any opt out direction.

5. Example. If John and Mary are both named policyholders on a homeowner's insurance policy issued by a licensee and the licensee sends policy statements to John's address, the licensee may do any of the following, but it shall explain in its opt out notice which opt out policy the licensee will follow:

- a. send a single opt out notice to John's address, but the licensee shall accept an opt out direction from either John or Mary;

- b. treat an opt out direction by either John or Mary as applying to the entire policy. If the licensee does so and John opts out, the licensee may not require Mary to opt out as well before implementing John's opt out direction;

- c. permit John and Mary to make different opt out directions. If the licensee does so:

i. it shall permit John and Mary to opt out for each other;

ii. if both opt out, the licensee shall permit both of them to notify it in a single response (such as on a form or through a telephone call); and

iii. if John opts out and Mary does not, the licensee may only disclose nonpublic personal financial information about Mary, but not about John and not about John and Mary jointly.

E. Time to Comply with Opt Out. A licensee shall comply with a consumer's opt out direction as soon as reasonably practicable after the licensee receives it.

F. Continuing Right to Opt Out. A consumer may exercise the right to opt out at any time.

G. Duration of Consumer's Opt Out Direction.

1. A consumer's direction to opt out under this Section is effective until the consumer revokes it in writing or, if the consumer agrees, electronically.

2. When a customer relationship terminates, the customer's opt out direction continues to apply to the nonpublic personal financial information that the licensee collected during or related to that relationship. If the individual subsequently establishes a new customer relationship with the licensee, the opt out direction that applied to the former relationship does not apply to the new relationship.

H. Delivery. When a licensee is required to deliver an opt out notice by this Section, the licensee shall deliver it according to §9921.

AUTHORITY NOTE: Promulgated in accordance with R.S. 22:2, 22:3, 22:3052, 22:3054 and Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, Public Law 106-102–Nov. 12, 1999).

HISTORICAL NOTE: Promulgated by the Department of Insurance, Office of the Commissioner; LR 27:554 (April 2001).

§9919. Revised Privacy Notices

A. General Rule. Except as otherwise authorized in this regulation, a licensee shall not, directly or through an affiliate, disclose any nonpublic personal financial information about a consumer to a nonaffiliated third party other than as described in the initial notice that the licensee provided to that consumer under §9911, unless:

1. the licensee has provided to the consumer a clear and conspicuous revised notice that accurately describes its policies and practices;

2. the licensee has provided to the consumer a new opt out notice;

3. the licensee has given the consumer a reasonable opportunity, before the licensee discloses the information to the nonaffiliated third party, to opt out of the disclosure; and

4. the consumer does not opt out.

B. Examples

1. Except as otherwise permitted by §§9929, 9931, and 9933, a licensee shall provide a revised notice before it:

a. discloses a new category of nonpublic personal financial information to any nonaffiliated third party;

b. discloses nonpublic personal financial information to a new category of nonaffiliated third party; or

c. discloses nonpublic personal financial information about a former customer to a nonaffiliated third party, if that former customer has not had the opportunity to exercise an opt out right regarding that disclosure.

2. A revised notice is not required if the licensee discloses nonpublic personal financial information to a new nonaffiliated third party that the licensee adequately described in its prior notice.

C. Delivery. When a licensee is required to deliver a revised privacy notice by this Section, the licensee shall deliver it according to §9921.

AUTHORITY NOTE: Promulgated in accordance with R.S. 22:2, 22:3, 22:3052, 22:3054 and Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, Public Law 106-102–Nov. 12, 1999).

HISTORICAL NOTE: Promulgated by the Department of Insurance, Office of the Commissioner; LR 27:555 (April 2001).

§9921. Delivery

A. How to Provide Notices. A licensee shall provide any notices that this regulation requires so that each consumer can reasonably be expected to receive actual notice in writing or, if the consumer agrees, electronically.

B.1. Examples of Reasonable Expectation of Actual Notice. A licensee may reasonably expect that a consumer will receive actual notice if the licensee:

a. hand-delivers a printed copy of the notice to the consumer;

b. mails a printed copy of the notice to the last known address of the consumer separately, or in a policy, billing or other written communication;

c. for a consumer who conducts transactions electronically, posts the notice on the electronic site and requires the consumer to acknowledge receipt of the notice as a necessary step to obtaining a particular insurance product or service;

d. for an isolated transaction with a consumer, such as the licensee providing an insurance quote or selling the consumer travel insurance, posts the notice and requires the consumer to acknowledge receipt of the notice as a necessary step to obtaining the particular insurance product or service.

2. Examples of Unreasonable Expectation of Actual Notice. A licensee may not, however, reasonably expect that a consumer will receive actual notice of its privacy policies and practices if it:

a. only posts a sign in its office or generally publishes advertisements of its privacy policies and practices; or

b. sends the notice via electronic mail to a consumer who does not obtain an insurance product or service from the licensee electronically.

C. Annual Notices Only. A licensee may reasonably expect that a customer will receive actual notice of the licensee's annual privacy notice if:

1. the customer uses the licensee's web site to access insurance products and services electronically and agrees to receive notices at the web site and the licensee posts its current privacy notice continuously in a clear and conspicuous manner on the web site; or

2. the customer has requested that the licensee refrain from sending any information regarding the customer relationship, and the licensee's current privacy notice remains available to the customer upon request.

D. Oral Description of Notice Insufficient. A licensee may not provide any notice required by this regulation solely by orally explaining the notice, either in person or over the telephone.

E. Retention or Accessibility of Notices for Customers

1. For customers only, a licensee shall provide the initial notice required by §9911.A.1, the annual notice required by §9913.A, and the revised notice required by §9919 so that the customer can retain them or obtain them later in writing or, if the customer agrees, electronically.

2. Examples of Retention or Accessibility. A licensee provides a privacy notice to the customer so that the customer can retain it or obtain it later if the licensee:

a. hand-delivers a printed copy of the notice to the customer;

b. mails a printed copy of the notice to the last known address of the customer; or

c. makes its current privacy notice available on a web site (or a link to another web site) for the customer who obtains an insurance product or service electronically and agrees to receive the notice at the web site.

F. Joint Notice with Other Financial Institutions. A licensee may provide a joint notice from the licensee and one or more of its affiliates or other financial institutions, as identified in the notice, as long as the notice is accurate with respect to the licensee and the other institutions. A licensee also may provide a notice on behalf of another financial institution.

G. Joint Relationships. If two or more consumers jointly obtain an insurance product or service from a licensee, the licensee may satisfy the initial, annual and revised notice requirements of §§9911, 9913 and 9919, respectively, by providing one notice to those consumers jointly.

AUTHORITY NOTE: Promulgated in accordance with R.S. 22:2, 22:3, 22:3052, 22:3054 and Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, Public Law 106-102–Nov. 12, 1999).

Subchapter C. Limits on Disclosures of Financial Information

§9923. Limits on Disclosure of Nonpublic Personal Financial Information to Nonaffiliated Third Parties

A.1. Conditions for Disclosure. Except as otherwise authorized in this regulation, a licensee may not, directly or through any affiliate, disclose any nonpublic personal financial information about a consumer to a nonaffiliated third party unless:

a. the licensee has provided to the consumer an initial notice as required under §9911;

b. the licensee has provided to the consumer an opt out notice as required in §9917;

c. the licensee has given the consumer a reasonable opportunity, before it discloses the information to the nonaffiliated third party, to opt out of the disclosure; and

d. the consumer does not opt out.

2. Examples of Reasonable Opportunity to Opt Out. A licensee provides a consumer with a reasonable opportunity to opt out if:

a. by mail. The licensee mails the notices required in Paragraph 1 of this Subsection to the consumer and allows the consumer to opt out by mailing a form, calling a toll-free telephone number or any other reasonable means within 30 days from the date the licensee mailed the notices;

b. by electronic means. A customer opens an on-line account with a licensee and agrees to receive the notices required in Paragraph 1 of this Subsection electronically, and the licensee allows the customer to opt out by any reasonable means within 30 days after the date that the customer acknowledges receipt of the notices in conjunction with opening the account;

c. isolated transaction with consumer. For an isolated transaction such as providing the consumer with an insurance quote, a licensee provides the consumer with a reasonable opportunity to opt out if the licensee provides the notices required in Paragraph 1 of this Subsection at the time of the transaction and requests that the consumer decide, as a necessary part of the transaction, whether to opt out before completing the transaction.

B. Application of Opt Out to All Consumers and All Nonpublic Personal Financial Information

1. A licensee shall comply with this Section, regardless of whether the licensee and the consumer have established a customer relationship.

2. Unless a licensee complies with this Section, the licensee may not, directly or through any affiliate, disclose any nonpublic personal financial information about a consumer that the licensee has collected, regardless of whether the licensee collected it before or after receiving the direction to opt out from the consumer.

C. Partial Opt Out. A licensee may allow a consumer to select certain nonpublic personal financial information or certain nonaffiliated third parties with respect to which the consumer wishes to opt out.

AUTHORITY NOTE: Promulgated in accordance with R.S. 22:2, 22:3, 22:3052, 22:3054 and Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act, Public Law 106-102–Nov. 12, 1999).

HISTORICAL NOTE: Promulgated by the Department of Insurance, Office of the Commissioner; LR 27:556 (April 2001).

§9925. Limits on Re-Disclosure and Reuse of Nonpublic Personal Financial Information

A.1. Information the Licensee Receives under an Exception.
