Your Message	I object to the sale of BCBS to Elevance Health. They have experienced many substantial problems in other states. BCBS is using high pressure sales tactics by repeated calls and daily full page newspaper ads of empty promises. Their vote solicitation and counting is suspect and ripe for fraud. How will independent auditors be able to verify telephone votes? Louisiana does not need another foundation with overpaid directors. Adding overpaid directors to appease the governor and the Dept of Insurance is a bribe that wrecks. Limiting the recipient to Pennington shows their political intent.

	Lawyers have described how impossible it is to modify trusts once they are setup. Promises are just efforts to gloss over that.
