To Whom It May Concern: My wife and I are long-time policy holders/members of Blue Cross. We object to any of the sales price going to the described "Foundation". Its purposes are vague, unrelated to Blue Cross' mission of providing health insurance to those who paid for it, and not directly beneficial to those surrounding me. All of the sales price should be paid to the members, or to eleemosynary institutions of our choices, and which are located in and benefit our local communities, rather than a Baton Rouge bureaucracy. I commit to dedicating my portion of the price entirely to such uses, but directed by me, rather than by those who know much less than I of the needs of those around me. Yours truly, Sid Marchand, 320 Chetimaches St., Donaldsonville, La. 70346 225 473 3811
